Guidance At End of Life (GAEL) Online Workshops

These workshops are open to any Registered Nurse working in the hospital setting, especially those who care and support people in the last few days of life. You will join other nursing colleagues in working through a case study relating to communication and care planning at end of life. The workshop will highlight the importance of the key actions in NHSGGC Guidance at End of Life.

Each 2hr 30 minute session will include a presentation, video clips and group work.

There is no cost to attend. To participate you will require access to a pc/laptop with speakers and a camera.
